PADI Assistant Instructor Program

Are you aiming at reaching a professional level in diving? Our Assistant Instructor Course is a valuable package to extend your potential and increase your teaching opportunities.

Moving on from Divemaster, the Assistant Instructor qualification will enable you to teach a range of PADI programmes, such as, Seal Team, Peak Performance Buoyancy and Academic Teaching Presentations as part of the instructional team. The Assistant Instructor Course is also the first part of the Instructor Development Course, and is an ideal stepping stone for those candidates who prefer to progress in smaller stages.

What do I need to start?

- PADI Divemaster or (or qualifying certification from another organization)
- Have 60 logged dives
- Proof of CPR training within the last 24 months
- Medical clearance signed by a physician

What will I do?

- Knowledge development through self-study, quizzes, lectures and presentations
- Confined water skill review and assessment, workshops and presentations
- Open water workshops, rescue assessment and candidate presentations
